

Dating and Money

www.Limor.Money

Challenge: Set up a Money Date, with the person you're dating to break the ice and finally talk about your finances. Choose a favourite coffee shop or bar, bring post-it notes, pens and an open mind.

Depending on your personalities select one of the two approaches below, read a question, then both write down your respective answers. Your answers should serve as a conversation starter... have fun!

Straight Shooter Approach

1.

1. How much money do you make?
2. How much debt do you have?
3. What is your biggest financial burden?
4. What is your credit score?
5. How much money do you have in your savings account?
6. How big is your emergency fund?
7. How much do you spend every month?
8. What's the most expensive purchase you've made?
9. What is your top financial goal?
10. Do you own any property?

Gentle Approach

2.

1. How do you feel about having debt?
2. What is your biggest financial stress?
3. What is your first memory of money?
4. Is saving a priority for you?
5. If you had a financial emergency, how would you handle it?
6. If you had an extra $100, what would you do with it?
7. Is tracking your finances important to you? Why or why not?
8. What is your top financial goal?
9. Do you aspire to own property in the future?
10. What do you think of people who have a lot of money?
